

David Geary, President, PRII and the Director of Communications for the Irish National Teachers' Organisation (INTO), heading a large communications team in both Dublin and Belfast. Over the course of a 13-year career, David has worked within a variety of communication and public policy roles, mostly within the trade and representative sectors.

David has served on the National Council of the PRII for several years, as a Council Member, Treasurer and most recently, Vice-President.